

BD-Coin Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy explains how the company (BD-coin) intends to collect, use and share/disclose the data and information provided by the users of the website www.bd-coin.com.

This is also an agreement between the Company (“BD-coin”, hereby represented by terms “we”, “our”, or “us”) and the user (“you”). By reading this document, you agree that you understand and accept the Company’s Privacy Policy and user agreement.

We assure you that the user privacy is of utmost importance to us, and we will protect the information that you provide us at any cost and against any possible disclosure. This includes any “Personal Data” submitted by the user on this website. This policy agreement also explains the ways we protect the confidentiality and privacy of user Data.

Collection of Information

There are basically two types of information we collect from our users on BDcoin website: information that is collected automatically, such as cookies, when you use the website; and personal information that users share voluntarily, such as their names, email ids, etc.

Personal Information

This type of information is willingly provided by the user when registering on the website or during some other activity. This may include user email address, name, phone number, alias, Ethereum address, physical address, etc. The information collected this way is used solely for purposes mentioned on the website.

By sharing this personal data with us, you also allow us to use and share your personal information as and when deemed necessary in accordance with terms mentioned in this Privacy Policy.

Automatically Collected Information

When a user visits and uses the BDcoin website, we may automatically collect the following information.

- Log Info: Server log information, including your login details, the pages visited, time spent on the website, the date and time of visit and the websites you visit right before and after our website.

- Device Info: Information about the device (mobile/computer) you are using to access our website, including the device type, screen size, operating system, web browser, etc.
- Usage information: Metadata related to the files you download or upload and the instances in which a user-specific private key is used are recorded automatically on the system.
- Telemetry Info about your device, including the storage status, upload/download speeds, etc.
- Cookies are small files containing user browsing records which automatically create and store in your device's web browser which you use to visit a website. We store cookies data such as IP address, web browser, and user's visit behaviour to be able to provide a better user experience.

Use and Disclosure of Information

The user information, voluntary and automatic, collected on BDCoin website will be used only for the following purposes. We might use your personal data in some other special other cases only if we have your prior consent.

- Understand user expectations and preferences and take actions to meet them;
- Detect and take action against any unauthorized or illegal activity on the website;
- Answer your inquiry or communicate with you;
- Manage and develop the operations of our business;
- Analyze user data to better understand the demand and online activity of website users and to determine the popularity of specific content;
- Carry out tasks for which user consent has been granted;
- Meet with users' requests for information or products/services;
- Monitor user activity and trends in connection with our website;
- Improve the website or launch new products/services through the site;
- Protect the property and rights of the Company and associated people;
- Fulfill any legal or regulatory requirements of the business;
- Perform functions and events on your behalf;

Sharing of Information

The information collected from the BDCoin website users might be shared with some or all of the parties mentioned below, however, the uses of such information are limited to certain extent.

- With our existing or future parent companies, subsidiaries, partners and other companies that work under or above us;
- Information required by a legal process, law or regulation;

- With third party service providers working for us;
- Information like your username, name, your posts, etc., which you may choose to display publicly;
- In the attempt to protect the rights and property of the website and its users if your actions are found inconsistent with the website policy;
- Limited information might be shared with third parties.

Protection of Personal Data

We have taken multiple measures to ensure the security of the user information available on the BDCoin website. Even though we take every possible precaution to protect the user privacy and information, we cannot be held responsible for any unauthorized use of the information provided to us. The users must understand that no system is entirely bulletproof, therefore, we can only protect your information, but cannot guarantee its safety.

The internet is way too mysterious and far too open for any one company or person to control it. No matter how much we try, we cannot guarantee that the information you provide to us will not be hacked or altered during or after it is received by us.

Security is a two-way street. We can only do so much and expect our users to be cautious and careful while sharing any personal data on our website. Also, if you visit another website by clicking on any third-party link on our website and share the data with that website, we won't be responsible to protect that information.

By reading this agreement, you agree not to hold our Company or any of our employees, workers and associates responsible for any loss or damage of information that you may experience on our website. You are free to limit the information you provide to us. You can even disable the cookies to restrict our access to your information, however, that may also restrict your use of the website.

Storage of Personal Data

Data provided to the Company is stored at a secure location in accordance with the regional laws of our jurisdiction. Several security standards have been enabled to ensure the proper safeguarding, security, and confidentiality of user data. Wherever required, the Company registers with proper national and local security providers for specific data subjects.

The Company also ensures that the data collected from the user is in compliance with the national and local laws of the particular region.

Changes to the Policy

he terms mentioned in this Privacy Policy can be changed at any time in the sole discretion of the Company. Any updates made to any section of this Policy will be posted on the homepage and News section of the website. However, changes will only be made in crucial situations and the users may be notified before that. It is user obligation to regularly visit the Privacy Policy page to keep track of the changes. Your continuous use of BDCoin website ensures that you continue to be bound with the Privacy Policy agreement and any changes made to it.

Withdrawal of Consent

You may at any time choose to withdraw your consent regarding giving us access to any of your personal information. We will not use or disclose any of the information for which you have refused or withdrawn your consent. We may, however, still continue to use the specific Personal Data to the extent that we are legally allowed to do so.

Through this agreement you also understand that in the case if you choose to limit our access to our Personal Data, we may not be able to provide you with all the services, especially the ones needing access to specific user information.
